

The Job Exploration Interview

You've worked hard, graduated from Certified Nurse Aide class, so now what?

Work where your friends do? Waste your time chasing down rumors of high wages, sign on bonuses and benefits? Navigate the cold online employment websites from your smart phone? How can you build a bridge to reach your goals in a timely manner? How can we help you reach your goals? We've found a solution!

Walker Medical is pleased to announce this exclusive new communication bridge between our graduates and employers.

Walker Medical graduates are in high demand. This exclusive offer is how we can help you build a communication bridge to evaluate the best employment package for your individual needs.

On the last day during graduation students who volunteer to participate will sign a legal release that allows us to forward their resume directly to area employers in a geographical area who have signed on to participate. In return employers have committed to contacting each Walker Medical graduate they receive a resume for and conduct a 15 to 20 minute, in person or on the phone, Job Exploration Interview.

It is our highest recommendation that you strive to make a great first impression. You'll have the freedom to ask questions and explore all the various segments of Certified Nurse Aide employment. From there the sky is the limit!

If you are a WMIS graduate in good standing and become unemployed, you can drop off a new resume and we will circulate it out to area employers in the next weekly batch.

There's never been a better time to become a Certified Nurse Aide!
